PART II of the RESIDENTIAL LEASE AGREEMENT: TERMS AND CONDITIONS
East St. Louis Housing Authority

THIS LEASE AGREEMENT (called the "Lease") is between the East St. Louis Housing Authority (called "Landlord") and Tenant named in Part I of this lease (called "Tenant"). The term "Landlord" refers to the East St. Louis Housing Landlord and/or its Managing Agent.

I. Description of the Parties and Premises.

- (a) The Landlord, using verified data about income, family composition, and needs, leases to Tenant, the property (called "premises" or "unit") described in Part I of this Lease, subject to the terms and conditions contained in this lease.
- (b) Premises must be used only as a private residence, solely for Tenant and the household members named on Part I of the Lease. The Landlord may, by prior written approval, consent to Tenant's use of the unit for legal profit-making activities incidental to the residential use subject to the Landlord's policy on such activities.
- (c) Any additions to the household members named on the lease, including but not limited to: Live-in Aides and foster children, but excluding natural births, require the advance written approval of the Landlord. Such approval will be granted only if the new household members are approved by the Landlord's screening criteria and a unit of the appropriate size is available. Permission to add Live-in Aides and foster children shall not be unreasonably refused. This provision permits accommodation of Tenant's guest for a period to not exceed 10 days within a six-month period, unless received written permission from the Landlord. Failure to comply with this provision is a lease violation of the lease and subject to termination of the lease.
- (d) Removal of household members named on the lease shall be reported by the Tenant to the Landlord in writing within 10 days of the departure of any person who is considered to be no longer residing, permanently, in the unit.

II Lease and Amount of Rent

- (a) Unless otherwise modified or terminated in accordance with Section IX, this Lease shall automatically be renewed for successive terms of one calendar year. The rent amount is stated above. Rent shall remain in effect unless adjusted by the Landlord in accordance with Section VII herein and the Landlord will provide an itemized statement of any rental adjustments. The rental amount shall be determined by the Landlord in compliance with HUD regulations and requirements and in accordance with the Landlord's Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy.
- (b) Rental payments are DUE and PAYABLE on or before the first day of each month and shall be considered delinquent after the 8th calendar day of each month. Payments may include utilities, excess appliances, and any maintenance services due to normal wear and tear. Rent adjustments are subject to the Grievance Procedure.

III. Other Charges

In addition to rent, Tenant is responsible for the payment of certain other charges specified in this lease. Other charges may include:

- (a) Maintenance costs: The cost for services or repairs due to intentional or negligent damage to the dwelling unit, common areas or grounds beyond normal wear and tear, caused by Tenant, household members or by guests. When the Landlord determines that needed maintenance is not caused by normal wear and tear, Tenant shall be charged for the cost of such service, either in accordance with the Schedule of Maintenance Charges posted by the Landlord or (for work not listed on the Schedule of Maintenance Charges) based on the actual cost to the Landlord for the labor and materials needed to complete the work. If overtime work is required, overtime rates shall be charged.

- (b) Excess Utility Charges: At developments where utilities are provided by the Landlord, a charge shall be assessed for excess utility consumption due to the operation of major tenant-supplied appliances. This charge does not apply to Tenants who pay their utilities directly to a utility supplier.
- (c) Installation charge for tenant-supplied air conditioners-is $30.00 per installation. The Tenant is responsible for the maintenance of tenant-supplied air conditioners.
- (d) Late Charge: A charge of $25.00 per month late fee for rent or other charges paid after the 8th calendar day of the month. The Landlord shall provide written notice of any additional charges.

IV. Payment Location

Rent and other charges can be made in person or by mail. Acceptable forms of payment are personal or certified check or money order to the Management Office where the tenant reside. The Landlord will not accept cash or credit card payments.

V. Security Deposit

- (a) Tenant agrees to pay a Security Deposit in the amount listed in Part I of this Lease.
- (b) The Security Deposit may be subject to the following at the termination of this Lease:
 - 1. To pay any outstanding cost rental charges or any other charges owed by Tenant.
 - 2. To reimburse the Landlord the cost for repairing any intentional or negligent damages to the unit caused by Tenant, household members or guests.
- (c) The Landlord shall not charge a higher Security Deposit for tenants with disabilities who use wheelchairs and/or have service or companion animals necessary as a reasonable accommodation.

The Security Deposit may not be used to pay rent or other charges while Tenant occupies the unit. No refund of the Security Deposit will be made until after Tenant has vacated the unit and the Landlord has inspected the unit.

The return of a Security Deposit shall occur within 30 days after Tenant moves out. The deposit shall be returned to the Tenant if she/he has complied with all obligations, including but, not limited to the following:

- 1. The resident gave a 14-Day Intent to Vacate the premises, and
- 2. The unit is left clean and in good condition, except for normal wear and tear, and;
- 3. All rent and other financial obligations under the lease have been paid, and
- 4. The keys have been returned for the unit.

The Landlord agrees to return the Security Deposit, if any, to Tenant when upon vacating the unit, less any deductions for any costs indicated above, so long as Tenant furnishes the Landlord with a forwarding address. If any deductions are made, the Landlord will furnish Tenant with an itemized list of charges in a written statement. The former resident has 30 days to dispute any charges in writing.

VI. Utilities and Appliances

- (a) Landlord: Supplied Utilities: If indicated by an (X) on Part I of the Lease Agreement, the Landlord will supply the indicated utility: electricity, natural gas, heating fuel, water, sewer service. The Landlord will not be liable for the failure to supply utility service for any cause whatsoever beyond its control. The Landlord will provide a cooking range and refrigerator. Other major electrical appliances, air conditioners, freezers, extra refrigerators, washers, dryers, etc., may be installed and operated only with the written approval of the Landlord. A monthly service charge will be payable by Tenant for the electricity used in the operation of such appliances.
- (b) Utilities Allowance: If Tenant resides in a development where the Landlord does not supply electricity, natural gas, or heating fuel, an allowance for utilities shall be established. Tenant shall pay for services rendered directly to the utility supplier. Therefore, the total rental payment for the Tenant will be the rental amount minus the utilities allowance. If the allowance for utilities exceeds the rental payment amount, the Landlord will pay a Utility Reimbursement to the utility supplier and/or to the Tenant monthly. The Landlord may change the utilities allowance at any time during the term of the lease, and shall provide the Tenant with a written notice 60 days prior to the change taking effect and any resultant changes in the rental amount. When Tenant's actual utility bill exceeds the utilities allowance, Tenant shall be responsible for paying the actual bill to the supplier. If Tenant's actual utility bill is LESS than the utilities allowance, Tenant shall receive the benefit of such saving.

- (c) Tenant agrees not to waste the utilities provided by the Landlord and to comply with any applicable law, regulation or guideline of any governmental entity regulating utilities or fuels. Tenant also agrees to abide by any local ordinance or any Landlord rules restricting or prohibiting the use of space heaters in multi-dwelling units.
- (d) Tenant is responsible to establish and maintain all accounts and payment of all utilities for all services rendered. Failure to maintain services or repeated disconnection shall be considered a material violation and subject to lease termination.

VI. Terms and Conditions

The following terms and conditions of occupancy are made a part of the Lease.

- (a) Use and Occupancy of the unit: Tenant shall have the right to exclusive use and occupancy of the unit for Tenant and other household members listed on the lease. Any member of the household may engage in legal activities that generate a profit so long as the Tenant or household members receive written approval from the Landlord prior to engaging in the activity.
- (b) Ability to comply with Lease terms: If the Tenant, by reason of physical or mental impairment, is no longer able to comply with the material provisions of this lease and unable to make arrangements for someone to aid him/her in complying with the lease, and the Landlord is unable to provide reasonable accommodations that would enable Tenant to comply with the lease; the Landlord will assist Tenant, or designated member(s) of Tenant's family, to find more suitable housing and move Tenant from the unit. If there are no family members who can or will take responsibility for moving Tenant, the Landlord will work with appropriate agencies to secure suitable housing and seek termination of the lease. At the time of admission, all Tenants must identify family member(s) to be contacted if they become unable to comply with lease terms or an emergency circumstance arises.
- (c) Rental Requirements: Tenant will be notified in writing to schedule an annual examination, any rent adjustments and the effective date of any adjustments.
 - (1) Annual re-examination reviews the status of family composition, age of family members, annual income and individual income source(s) for all family members, assets, and related information necessary to determine eligibility. Failure to comply and provide required information will be considered a material violation and subject to lease termination. In addition, the rent will become "Market Rate" On the scheduled effective re-examination date. Tenant agrees to comply with the Landlord's requests for verification by signing releases for third-party sources, presenting documents for review, or providing other suitable forms of verification. The Landlord shall give Tenant reasonable notice of what actions Tenant must take and of the date by which any such action must be taken to remain in compliance with the lease. The verified information will be considered in the determination of rent, continued eligibility, and whether the unit size is still appropriate for Tenant's family composition. This determination will be made in accordance with the Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy which is posted in the Management Office. A copy of any policy may be provided upon request and a copy fee assessed.
 - (2) Rent may be adjusted between regular re-examinations for the following reasons:
 - (a) An income source changes. The tenant must verify the change in income with the required proof of documentation.
 - (b) When a reduction in income is approved, the Tenant must report subsequent increases in income within seven (7) days of the occurrence. Failure to report increased income within seven (7) days may result in a retroactive rent charge

- and/or subject to lease termination.
 - (c) Retroactive rent charges will apply as of the first month following the month of failure to report or misrepresentation of income.
 - (d) All changes in family composition must be reported to the Landlord within seven (7) days of the occurrence. Failure to report may result in retroactive rent charges and subject to lease termination. This Lease will NOT be revised to permit a request to allow adult children to reside in the unit. Exception: Tenant or someone assisting the Tenant provides documentation to support an adult child residing with the Tenant and a determination is made by the Landlord that the adult child is essential to the mental or physical health of Tenant.
 - (e) Rent Adjustments: Occurs when a reported change in circumstances by the Tenant or determined by the Landlord or change in applicable Federal law or regulation. Tenant must be notified by the Landlord in writing of the adjustment and the effective date of any adjustment.
 - (f) Decrease Rent: the adjustment will become effective on the first day of the month following the occurrence.
 - (g) Increase Rent: occurs after a prior rent reduction and is reported within seven (7) days of the occurrence, the increase will become effective the first day of the second (2) month following the month of the occurrence.
 - (h) Increase Rent: occurs as a result of misrepresentation, failure to report a change in family composition or income, the increase will become effective the first day of the month following the month of the occurrence.
 - (i) Rent will not automatically decrease if the Resident is no longer eligible for assistance from Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) for failure to comply with TANF policies.
- (d) Transfers:
- (1) Landlord determines the size of the unit no longer is suitable for the family composition, the Landlord will provide the Tenant with two (2) written transfer offers. Tenant will have three (3) days to accept the unit and sign a new lease from the date of each transfer offer letter.
 - (2) Landlord may transfer Tenant to another unit for necessity due to demolishing or emergency circumstances.
 - (3) Tenant request additional accommodations, documented disability approved by the Landlord, and the cost and/or extent of the modifications to satisfy the accommodation request are beyond the Landlord's ability to accommodate, the Landlord may transfer the Tenant to another unit.
 - (4) Landlord may transfer Tenant, without documented disabilities, when the features of a unit meet the accommodation request of another Tenant. This is considered an involuntary transfer. Involuntary transfers require the Tenant to transfer to an available unit within five (5) days of receiving the transfer notice. Involuntary transfers are subject to the Grievance Procedure and lease termination.
 - (5) Landlord will consider Tenant transfer requests in accordance with Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy.
- (e) Unit Access:
- (1) Tenant shall allow authorized personnel to enter the unit to perform routine, monthly and/or preventative maintenance for the extermination of pests.
 - (2) Tenant must comply with all the preparation requirements for bed bug/pest control treatment required by the exterminator. Failure to comply will be subject to lease termination.

VII. Landlord Obligations - The Landlord shall be obligated:
